

Sean Lemmens

Sean began playing junior football for the Salisbury Football Club before moving to the Port Adelaide Magpies. He progressed his way through the junior ranks at Port Adelaide before solidifying a reserves spot in the 2013. Sean debuted for the Magpies senior team in the final round of the 2013 SANFL season.

He was also selected to represent South Australia in the 2013 AFL Under 18 Championships, where he was noticed by Gold Coast defensive coach, Dean Solomon and was drafted with the 27th pick in the 2013 National Draft by the Gold Coast Suns making his debut for the Suns in 2014.

Sean was selected in the 2015 Indigenous All-Stars team.

After struggling to break into the club's best 22 in 2020, a shift to half-back last year saw Lemmens have a career-best season. The defender became the 15th player to reach 100 games for the Suns, playing 21 last season and finishing seventh in the best and fairest.

Sean signed a contract extension in September 2022, locking him away until 2024.
